

Freedom's Torch

Words by Christina Reeve
Music by JoLane Jolley

Strong march - moderato

1. When my coun-try's flag's un - furled each bright col-or tells the world men and wo - men bold and free hand-ed free - dom's torch— to me.

2. White re - minds me to be fair. E - qual rights means I will share.
Jus - tice is - n't for the few; I must think of o - thers too.

3. Blue re - minds me I must be on the side of lib - er - ty.
choos - ing truth to be my light, stead - fast in the cause— of right.

4. Red re - minds me man - y died for this land I walk with pride.
I must keep my own life just, worth-y of their sa - cred— trust.

5. When I see the flag go by, I stand tall and I know why - men and wo - men, proud and free, hand - cd free-dom's torch— to me, to me, to me, to me.
